

Hilda Vandergriff – Bird of Paradise Watercolor Lesson
Thursday, September 9th 10:30am – 12:30pm

Learn how to paint a beautiful Bird of Paradise flower painting using watercolors. In this lesson, you will learn how to paint a loose background and how to bring out flowers with vibrant colors. Your main star attraction will be the colorful flowers. A lesson handout will be emailed to you so you can prepare your watercolor paper once payment is received. You will watch demo steps on the painting process. This is a class for anyone, no experience is required. Come have fun painting and learn about watercolors.

To enroll contact: Hilda Vandergriff

Phone: 559-679-5099

Email: Hvandergriff@aol.com

Fee: $49.00 per person, payable by cash or check

Ages: 8 Years and older

To reserve your spot mail the lesson fee to Hilda Vandergriff, 1854 N. Pamela Ave., Clovis, CA 93619. Fees will not be processed until after the art lesson. A credit waiver certificate will be issued if you cancel 24 hours before the date of the lesson.

Materials Needed for Lesson:

(available thru Art Central, please note that some colors must be ordered in advance):

-Daniel Smith Watercolor Paint: New Gamboge, Imperial Purple, Cobalt Teal Blue, Ultra Marine Blue, Permanent Rose, Payne's Grey

-Watercolor brush sizes round #10, #8, #4, and a rigger brush

-9x12 watercolor pad or Arches 140 lb. paper

-Watercolor palette

-Water container

-Paper Towels